Background

The following is based on self-reported information students provided when they applied. A total of 51% of first-years are US citizens or Permanent Residents who identify as members of a minority group. Categories do not add up to 100% because 19% of domestic first-years indicated two or more ethnicities and are therefore represented in more than one category.

African American	12%
Asian American	25%
Hispanic/Latino	15%
Native American	3%
White	50%
International	12%

Note: In response to the pandemic, Yale temporarily suspended its requirement that first-year applicants submit results from the ACT or SAT. While this policy is in effect, the admissions office will not report data on the test scores or test-sharing choices of applicants, admitted students, or enrolling students. A decision on testing policy for the 2022-23 admissions cycle will be made in early 2022.
